SUBJECT: FRANCOPHONIE MONTH (SCHOOL VISITS OF THE AMBASSADORS OF SWITZERLAND, VIETNAM, ROMANIA, AND EGYPT)

DATE: March 6, 2023

The International Organization of the Francophonie, with its 88 member-countries, will celebrate the Francophonie Month and the 75th Anniversary of Diplomatic Relations between France and the Philippines this March. The celebrations aims highlight and promote the values and traditions of the countries brought together by the French language.

As part of the series of activities set to celebrate the French language, the Ambassadors and representatives of the Francophonie countries shall visit select Special Program in Foreign Language-French (SPFL-French) implementing schools in the National Capital Region (NCR). The Ambassadors shall attend the French classes, present their respective countries to explain how they are part of the Francophonie and share with the learners the diversity of cultures and values they have and its commonalities with the Filipinos.

Below is the schedule of visit of the Ambassadors of Switzerland, Vietnam, Romania, and Egypt to the select schools in NCR:
