Greetings!

This is in connection with the reschedule of the Association of Professional Teachers & Researchers, Inc., in holding the first Webinar Series on December 6, 7, & 8, 2023, it will be transfer on December 18, 19, 20, 2023, with a theme, entitled “Organizing an Academic Research Paper: Fundamentals & General Rules”. The main objective of the first conference is to extend the service for the renewal of the Professional Regulation Commission (PRC) ID of all registered and licensed professional, since Continuing Professional Development (CPD) law is a mandatory requirement of PRC. Further, this is essential based on the objectives of Commission on Higher Education (CHED # 52, 2016) improving the research capabilities of faculty, research staff, and graduate students; instilling a research culture and research vocation among faculty members, increasing research productivity, and raising research quality impact. Thus, the organization will hold a webinar series for keeping the teachers updated teachers and upgraded in the field of research. More significantly, engagement in research are essentially important in preparing teachers/ educators for a globally competitive society. Our participants are among at least 100 educators from the different institutions (DEpED & HEIs).

In line with these, may we invite you to participate on our 1st Webinar Series this year, the deadline of payment will be on 11, 2023. Stated below the Registration fee:
