Thru: Ma'am Marita Aquino – Program Supervisor

Dear Dr. Jocelyn and Ma'am Marita,

Greetings from The LoveLife Project for Health & Environment Inc., a non-profit non-stock organization by media professionals and marginalized groups of persons with disabilities, persons living with chronic health conditions, persons with lived mental health experiences, tuberculosis patients, COVID-19 patients, person living with HIV, LGBTIQ persons, youth, and women from low-income communities who envision a society where people live optimally healthy, happy, and productive.

Students, Young People, Persons with Disabilities, and Persons Living with HIV collaborate and lead the 2023 Persons with Digitabilities International Film Festival from November 30 to December 2 (Thursday to Saturday) at Lucrecia Kasilag Theater, in the Lucrecia Kasilag Senior High School campus, Bansalangin Street, Project 7, Quezon City, from 9 AM to 5 PM with the observation of Bonifacio Day, World AIDS Day, and the International Day of Persons with Disabilities. The PWDIFF aims to raise awareness of disabilities, diseases, disasters, PWD inclusion, and rights while developing the communication, media, and storytelling skills of PWDs.

In this connection, we humbly invite you or your representative to speak at the Opening Program on December 1 from 9 AM to 12 PM, on the theme "DEPED NCR's Inclusion and Accessibility for Students with Disabilities and Students with Mental Health Lived Experiences" (from 3 to 5 minutes) and/or share with the students, parents, and teachers, as well as policymakers, organizations, and media any inspiring message.

We also ask for your support to endorse our event to other DEPED agencies and NCR division offices and we will provide them with free passes to enjoy the educational and inspirational movies on health, disabilities, inclusion, and PWD rights. We invite heads of MAPEH, health, gender, disability, and student government programs to attend on December 1. We have passes for all health officers, guidance counselors, and mental health organizations in public high schools, subject to first-to-reserve-first-served basis.

Through your office, we will also give free passes to student government and PTA officers of public junior and senior high schools for a limited number only and first-come-first-served basis. We have free passes for November 30 and December 2 as well.

The Opening Program will have the community launch of Friendship Puzzles, a television drama series on teenagers and mental health that won a contest grant from the National Council for Children's Television.

You may RSVP through thelovelife.ph@gmail.com or contact me at 09063292818 and I shall respond as soon as possible. Thank you for your consideration!

Sincerely,

Crisaldo Pablo
Creative Executive Director
