One of our major projects is the biblical stage play that enhances the faith of all ages. This will be open to all public and private schools. The event will take place upon approval of the schools and the participants are students, faculty, and staff of every school. The school participants are subject to submit their output and guidelines before we start the show. The objective of the show is to promote the appreciation and emphasize the importance of the play to all individuals, to enhance the essence of moral value to everyone.
