SUBJECT: Francophonie Month (School Visits of H.E. Ambassador Marie Fontanel and Ambassadors from the French-Speaking Countries)

DATE: February 14, 2024

The International Organization of the Francophonie, with its 88 member countries, will celebrate the Francophonie Month and the 76th Anniversary of Diplomatic Relations between France and the Philippines this March. The celebrations highlight and promote the values and traditions of the countries brought together by the French language.

As part of the series of activities set to celebrate the French language, the Ambassadors and representatives of the Francophonie countries shall visit select Special Program in Foreign Language-French (SPFL-French) implementing schools in the National Capital Region (NCR). The Ambassadors shall attend the French classes, present their respective countries to explain how they are part of the Francophonie, and share with the learners the diversity of cultures and values they have and their commonalities with the Filipinos.

Kindly refer to the table below for the schedule of school visits to the select schools in NCR.
