“MOHS CHECK” COMPREHENSIVE SCHOOL PROGRAM

The Mary Lindbert International in partnership with MOHS Analytics, Inc. and the Department of Education through its MOHS “Children’s Health...Everybody’s Concern to Keep” (CHECK) Comprehensive School Program will be distributing free workbooks and teaching guides that would augment materials in teaching proper health education to Kinder-Grade 2 pupils. They will also visit select schools to distribute free MOHS sample products and materials that will help pupils and teachers keep themselves away from common diseases like dengue, COVID-19, UTI, etc.

The program will also conduct a contest open to all elementary schools in the National Capital Region on “good health and keeping away from diseases” – MOHS and Mary Lindbert Int’l will provide prizes to winners of the contest.

Attached is the list of schools included in the program.

Dr. Jocelyn Andaya
Director IV
National Capital Region
Department of Education
Quezon City

Dear Dr. Andaya,

Greetings from MaryLindbert Int'l and MOHS Analytics, Inc!

The MOHS "Children's Health...Everybody's Concern to Keep" (CHECK) Comprehensive School Program is already implemented in select schools in the National Capital Region thru the partnership of MaryLindbert International, MOHS Analytics, Inc. and the Department of Education.

The "MOHS CHECK" Comprehensive School Program is:

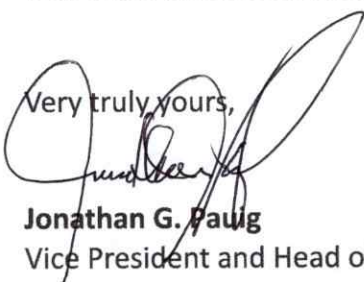

- an advocacy campaign on the importance of good health amongst young students.
- a program that teaches school children the importance of early detection of common diseases. It aims to teach the importance of the value of being healthy and disease free.
- an advocacy campaign to help students, teachers and parents familiarize the different ways of detecting diseases at the onset.

The program includes in its protocols the distribution of FREE workbooks and teaching guides on the above topics that would augment materials in teaching proper health education to Kinder-Grader 2 pupils. MaryLindbert Int'l and MOHS Analytics Inc. will also visit select schools to distribute FREE MOHS sample products and materials that will help pupils and teachers keep themselves away from common diseases like dengue, covid-19, UTI, etc. Moreover, the program will also conduct a contest open to all elementary schools in the region on "good health and keeping away from diseases" – MOHS and MaryLindbert Int'l will provide prizes to winners of the contest.

Inline with the above, we would like to request your kind office for an advisory to inform the schools included in the program (please see attached list) that the MOHS CHECK Comprehensive School Program will be implemented in their schools and that they will receive above mentioned FREE materials and services.

Your usual kind accommodation is highly appreciated. God bless and more power!

Very truly yours,

Jonathan G. Paug
Vice President and Head of Operations
