We are pleased to inform you that PAFID has been a partner of the Department of Education in activities like Camp Pag-ibig for Learners with Intellectual Disabilities and Developmental Delays and National Conferences on Special Needs and Inclusive Education for more than 20 years. The first activity was usually held on a Sunday after February 14 as the culmination of the celebration of the National Intellectual Week per Presidential Proclamation No. 1385, Series of 1975.

Last 2021, PAFID under the leadership of Hon. Mayor Joy Belmonte, the Quezon City Capitol Jaycees, the Department of Education, National Capital Region, Camp Pag-ibig was held on February 14 via Zoom and Live Streaming.

For this 2025 Camp Pag-ibig, it will be held face-to-face where the children can learn away from the walls of the classroom and engage in activities outside of the mainstream curriculum, enjoy teamwork, resilience and improving independence, and have the opportunity of inclusive environment and experience positive interaction in a diversified setting.

In this connection, we are inviting you and/or your representatives from the Student Inclusion Division to be part of the Organizing Committee to attend the planning meetings, letters of invitation soon to be sent to you. Further, we humbly request your good Office to extend an invitation to public and private schools offering SNEd services in NCR to participate in the Camp Pag-ibig for Children with Disabilities on February 16, 2025, at Balara Filter Compound, Quezon City.

We deeply appreciate your anticipated support to this Camp Pag-ibig where the children with disabilities, teachers and advocates can learn and share their experiences on enjoying the inclusion activities with everyone.

Thank you very much and blessings to all of you!

Very truly yours,
